Chao Kuo Chiu

A member of the Royal family, Chao Kuo Chiu used his plank to bring the royal court to order. He also carried with him a Jade Imperial Tablet that identified his high status.

Eventually he gave away all his wealth to the poor and went into the mountains to seek the Tao. After becoming immortal, he used his plank to play soothing and relaxing rhythm for meditation and traveling throughout the universe.

The Immortal Chao Kuo Chiu is often associated with the sense of clarity, serenity and stability of nature. He represents calmness, centering, and fairness.
